

CALL FOR PAPERS – MidSouth APMS 2023 MEETING

The MidSouth APMS 42nd Annual Meeting will be held October 24-26, 2023, in LaGrange, GA. We are looking for papers on new and innovative projects regarding the biology, ecology, and control of plants in aquatic and wetland areas – (innovative control measures, re-vegetation projects, new exotic plant introductions, research projects, regulatory or policy issues, etc.) We welcome presentations from researchers, students, scientists, applicators, regulatory professionals, and other resource management personnel. You don't have to be a professional speaker in order to present a paper or attend. MidSouth APMS also wants to give the aquatic plant managers at the annual conference a chance to share what you have learned over the last year with other members.

All registration fees will be waived for students who present during the general sessions

NEW to MidSouth APMS, Resource Manager Paper Award (RMPA), this year the Society is reaching out to engage applicators and aquatic plant managers to deliver presentations regarding their greatest accomplishments and struggles in an effort to enhance communication among society members. Awards will be given to 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place RMPA presenters.

Forms can be emailed to danielh@southeastvm.com.
